

UTOPIA/DYSTOPIA

Conor Mullen
Laramie, WY

Facts About Fallout

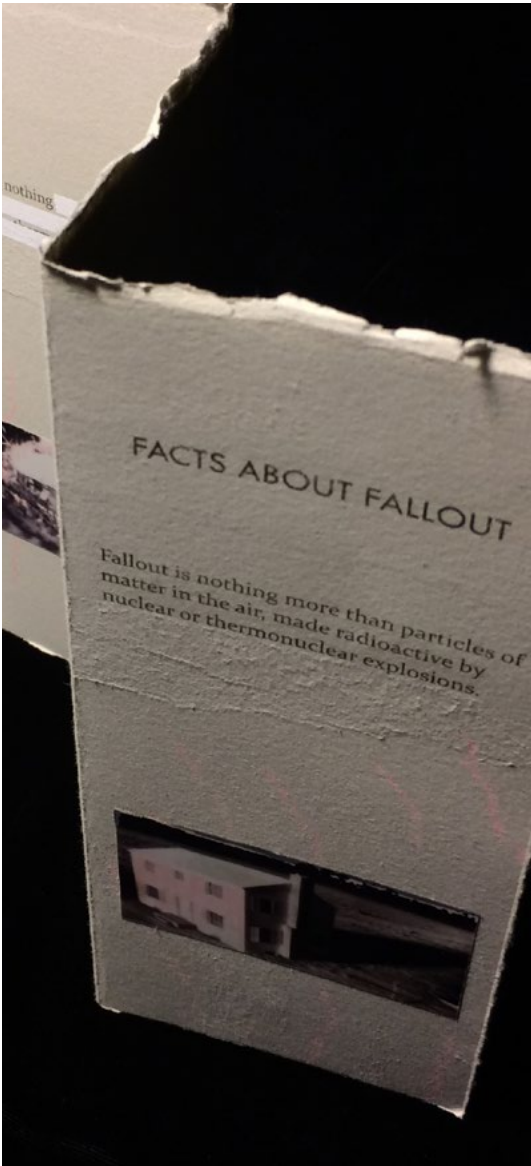

Hand-crafted pamphlet created with Rives BFK paper, Dura-Lar, colored pencil, white-out, transfer drawings, and archived materials. 8.5" h x 14" w

Statement

By repurposing words and images once published by the U.S. Department of Defense and the Federal Civil Defense Administration, this hand-made PSA pamphlet asks viewers to compare ideas of utopia and dystopia through a series of compositions that transform a seemingly typical American home into a test site for nuclear detonation.

Biography

Conor Mullen is a Laramie, Wyoming-based artist, educator, organizer, and skateboarder working across various mediums to better understand people, places, the environment, and society.

“A hand-made PSA that compares ideas of utopia/dystopia through a repurposing of words/images once published by the U.S. FCDA and the DoD.”