Southern Wyoming Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP)

RSVP is sponsored by Cheyenne Housing Authority under a Board of Commissioners that includes five Mayor appointed community representatives.

RSVP is a granted program of the Corporation for National Service, which has other programs such as Foster Grandparents, Senior Companions, VISTA and AmeriCorp.

Funding for the program comes from the Corporation for National Service (Federal), cities and counties of Wyoming, State of Wyoming Aging Division, a planned giving program, fundraisers, and assorted grants.

Southern Wyoming RSVP Members volunteer in 8 Wyoming Counties which include Lincoln, Uinta, Sweetwater, Carbon, Albany, Laramie, Platte and Goshen.

Local match money goes to the senior volunteers as benefits which include mileage and meal reimbursement and insurance coverage.

RSVP has an Advisory Council that includes volunteers and community members.

RSVP staff includes a Project Director and Outreach Coordinator.

MEET OUR JUDGE for the 20th Annual ArtFest:

Matthew Wilson is the Preparator for the Wyoming State Museum.

Matthew was born in New Haven, Connecticut and went to school in New York. He studied Fine Art with a focus on printmaking and a specialization in Lithography. After getting his Bachelor's of Fine Arts he moved to New York City and began working at the Manhattan Graphics Center, a non-profit, collaborative print shop. There he curated several exhibitions.

He completed his MFA from Brooklyn College in 2010 and began teaching photography at the International Center for Photography. He has exhibited prints, paintings, video and sound installations throughout New York and Internationally. He currently lives in Cheyenne and is working on painting and film photography.

Welcome Matthew!
