EXHIBITS & SPECIAL EVENTS

Back to the Source: Black History Exhibit

Now – February 16

Library Hours

In celebration of Black History Month a collection of artifacts will be on exhibit in the library's 1st floor display cases. Collection presented courtesy of James Peebles, Sankofa African Heritage Awareness, Inc. (All Ages; 1st Floor)

Empire: A Community of African Americans on the Wyoming Plains

Now – February 16

Library Hours

In celebration of Black History Month learn about the history of Empire, Wyoming. Also known as Exodusters, the community of African American migrants from the Post-Civil War South settled in Goshen County near Torrington and made an incredible impact on our state's history. Exhibit is on loan from the Wyoming State Museum. (All Ages; 1st Floor)

Josiah Film Discussion

Thursday, February 6

6:30–8:30pm

Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin sold 3,000 copies in its first day. By the end of its first year in print, the book had sold over 300,000 copies in the United States alone, eventually becoming the best-selling novel of the 19th century. But was there a real Uncle Tom? Josiah chronicles the life of Josiah Henson, the man who was Stowe's inspiration for Uncle Tom. The movie is an epic tale of courage and bravery in the face of unimaginable trials. Discussion afterward led by activist Monica Jennings. (Adults; Cottonwood Room)

He had a dream. The dream lives on.

Laramie County Library System Presents

A Dedication to the Dream: Dr. Carson's Pursuit of MLK's Vision

February 13, 2020

6:30pm

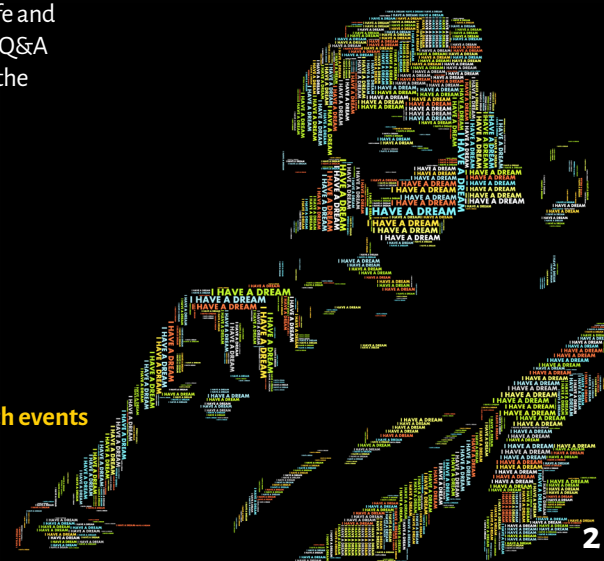

FREE at the Cheyenne Civic Center*

Having attended the 1963 March on Washington and listened firsthand to Martin Luther King, Jr.'s profound words, "I have a dream," Dr. Clayborne Carson is uniquely positioned to teach about King's works, beliefs, and impact. In 1985, Coretta Scott King provided Carson with all of MLK's personal writings; he has since dedicated his life to the King Papers Project, the comprehensive collection of the civil rights leader's sermons, speeches, letters, publications, and personal writings. Founder of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Research and Education Institute at Stanford University and editor of numerous books on King's life, Carson is considered the foremost scholar on Martin Luther King, Jr.

Come listen to Dr. Carson as he presents in Wyoming for the first time and details Martin Luther King, Jr.'s life and work at the Cheyenne Civic Center. A Q&A session and book signing will follow the presentation. (Adults, Teens & Families)

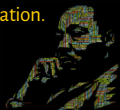

*For preferred seating, please RSVP by visiting LaramieCountyLibrary.org

We have more Black History Month events for all ages! See pages 3, 9 and 11.

YOUTH & FAMILY EVENTS

These are Black History Month events!
See p. 2 for more information.

Family Unity Storytime in Celebration of Black History Month

Saturday, February 1

10:15–11:30am

Join us as we kick off our Black History Month celebrations with a unique family experience! We will read a couple books, create a great craft, and eat some snacks while we learn about our country's Civil Rights Movement. A special guest will show us some amazing artifacts and discuss the items we use every day that were created by Black inventors.
(Children & Families; Early Literacy Center)

Brown Bag Book Club

Thursday, February 13

5:30–8pm

Thursday, February 27

6–7pm

Book club will meet twice during the month of February. We will review the first half of the book on the 13th and the second part on the 27th. Participants can bring a "brown bag" meal, and desserts and drinks will be provided. This month, in recognition of Black History Month, we will be reading The Parker Inheritance. The first meeting will consist of a brief discussion of what we have read so far, followed by a group trip to the Cheyenne Civic Center to attend A Dedication to the Dream: Dr. Carson's Pursuit of MLK's Vision. Special seats will be reserved and family members are welcome to sit with the book club.
(Grades 4–6; Sage Room)

Book description: When Candice finds a letter addressed to her grandmother in an old attic in South Carolina, she isn't sure she should read it. But the letter describes an injustice that happened decades ago, and the fortune that awaits the person who solves the puzzle. Can Candice decipher the clues to find the fortune, before the answers slip into the past?

Poetry Jam

Wednesday, February 19

6–7pm

Poetry is art. Poetry is music. Poetry is inspiration, motivation, and action. Poems share feelings in a way that no other art form can. Come explore a few historical and contemporary Black poets who inspired and moved people with their powerful words, and then write an impactful poem all your own! (Grades 5–6; Early Literacy Center and Sage Room)

Inventions: Black History Exhibit

February 1–16

Take a look at these great inventions! Located by the Ask Here desk on the 2nd floor.

EARLY LITERACY ACTIVITIES

Early Literacy Center (ELC)

The ELC is open for playing, reading, singing, talking, and writing after storytime. We encourage you to take the opportunity to explore the Learning Spots (changed monthly) with your children, socialize with other caregivers, and enjoy your time in the library.

Letters of the Month: K and L

Color of the Month: Turquoise

Number of the Month: 6

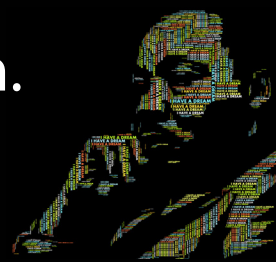

My Library Place

The space outside the Early Literacy Center is a great place to socialize and meet new friends after storytime while children play and interact with you and each other.

Who are these mountain lion cubs and what are they doing in the library?

Elsie and Eddie are the early literacy mascots for Laramie County Library System. You'll see them around the library and sometimes around town! Wherever they are, they are helping to get young children ready to read!

TEEN EVENTS

These are Black History Month events!
See p. 2 for more information.

Book and a Movie: The Hate You Give

Book Discussion:

Tuesday, February 4

6:30 – 7:30pm

It's Black History Month and we want to celebrate and discuss award-winning book, The Hate You Give by Angie Thomas and watch the movie adaptation. Since reading and movie watching with friends is better, we'll hold a session to discuss the book and then we'll watch the movie later in the week! Register for the book club on the 2nd floor of the Cheyenne library and pick up your free copy of the book to keep. Space is limited so RSVP soon! Come watch the movie (rated PG-13) whether you have read the book or not! We'll have lunch and a short discussion. (Grades 7–12; Sage Room)

Description: Sixteen-year-old Starr Carter grapples with police brutality, activism, and racism after she witnesses the murder of her unarmed best friend Khalil at the hands of a police officer. When Khalil's death makes headlines, Starr must navigate the protesters, police officers, and local drug lord who all want to know what really happened, knowing that what she says and does could impact everything.

Good Hair

Friday, February 14

12 – 1:45pm

In the movie Good Hair, comedian Chris Rock investigates the importance of hair in Black culture while examining the perceptions that drive this multi-billion dollar industry. What exactly is "good hair?"

GENEALOGY EVENTS

Genealogy: Finding Your African American Ancestors

Saturday, February 8

4 – 5:30pm

Family history research on your African American ancestors can be difficult. This class will give you some hints about where to search beyond standard genealogy resources. We will look into census records, Freedman's Bank Records, military records, newspapers, DNA research, and more. (Adults; Sunflower Room)

This is a Black History Month event!
See p. 2 for more information.

Genealogy Basics with Ancestry Library Edition

Saturday, February 15

4 – 5:30pm

Have you ever wanted to research your family history? This basic class will give you all the information you need to get started. Our discussion will include books and other resources available at Laramie County Library System, the basics of genealogy record keeping, and how to search using Ancestry Library Edition, the free library version of Ancestry.com.

(Adults; Sunflower Room)

Genealogy: Beyond Ancestry.com

Saturday, February 22

4 – 5:30pm

This class will take you beyond the basics of genealogy research and into some forgotten resources that can tell you about your ancestors. We will discuss how to research your ancestors in free resources on the Internet. We will cover FamilySearch.org, FindAGrave.com, and more.

(Adults; Sunflower Room)

SEED LIBRARY EVENTS

Winter Seed Sowing

Thursday, February 27

6:30 – 8pm

Some seeds need cold temperatures, moisture, and natural sunlight cycles to germinate. Laramie County Master Gardener Michelle Bohanan will demonstrate a winter sowing method to start these plants without taking chances on the weather, hungry birds raiding your seeds, or frozen seedlings. We will also have a seed swap, so bring some seeds to trade! Presented in partnership with Prairie Garden Club and Seed Library of Laramie County. (Adults & Teens; Early Literacy Center)

LIBRARY TO BUSINESS EVENTS

Introduction to Foundation Directory Online*

Friday, February 7

3 – 4pm

Looking for grants for your nonprofit? Only 10 percent of U.S. foundations have websites! Come learn how to use Foundation Directory Online (FDO) to help find funders. FDO is the most comprehensive prospect research tool for fundraisers, with over 140,000 grantmaker profiles. Presented in partnership with Candid/Funding Information Network and L2B. NOTE: This class is for nonprofit organizations looking for funding. It is not geared toward individuals seeking grants.

(Adults; Windflower Room)

Guardianship of Minor Children

Monday, February 10

4 – 5:30pm

There are many times when someone other than a child's parent may need to have the legal right to make decisions about a child. This presentation will cover the basics of guardianship of minor children and the court process for obtaining guardianship. A Q&A session and opportunities to apply for services will follow the presentation. Presented in partnership with Equal Justice Wyoming and L2B.

(Adults; Cottonwood Room)

*RSVP for L2B programs by visiting LaramieCountyLibrary.org/services/L2B then click on the program you're interested in. Or scan this QR code on your device to go directly to the page.
