

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 28, 2020

Shroud of Turin Scholar to Present at Laramie County Library

On Saturday, March 7 at 10:00 a.m. in the Cottonwood Room, Laramie County Library will host Dr. Cheryl White for a presentation and discussion on the Shroud of Turin. Having dedicated her entire academic career to the Shroud, Dr. White is a highly qualified speaker on the subject, and has lectured on Shroud-related topics all around the country. Her presentation will delve into the mysteries of the Shroud while exploring all of the evidence, stories, and legends that have surrounded it throughout history.

Dr. White holds a Ph.D. and is a Professor of History at Louisiana State University-Shreveport. She has presented papers at numerous international Shroud conferences and is a board member of the Shroud of Turin Education and Research Association. Throughout her lectures and presentations, Dr. White has unpacked the origins of the Shroud and explored the myriad of unanswered questions it continues to generate for historians, scientists, and theologians alike.

This presentation is free and open to the public. Don't miss the opportunity to delve into one of history's most studied objects and discover the mysteries for yourself at Laramie County Library.

Contact

Kasey Mossey at 307-773-7225 or kmossey@lclsonline.org for more information or to arrange interviews. For general library information, please call 307-634-3561 or visit LaramieCountyLibrary.org.