Laramie County Library System to Host Best-selling Author, C.J. Box, for Long Range Reading and Signing

On March 12 at 7:00 p.m. in the Cottonwood Room, Laramie County Library will host #1 New York Times best-selling author and Wyoming native, C.J. Box, as he presents his latest Joe Pickett novel, Long Range. Box will read an excerpt from the novel and answer questions from the audience before signing books. Copies of Long Range will be available to purchase during the event, courtesy of Barnes & Noble.

The twentieth installment in the Joe Pickett series has garnered praise from The Denver Post and Publisher's Weekly. The Columbus Dispatch states that, "Box has established a terrific cast of Western characters...When it comes to western contemporary thrillers with intriguing characters, no one does it better than Box."

Winner of the Edgar Allan Poe Award for Best Novel and several other accolades, Box is one of Wyoming's most prolific writers having penned twenty-seven novels and sold over ten million copies in the United States alone. His latest book is sure to thrill audiences all around the world with its riveting Wyoming drama.

This event is free and open to the public. Doors will open at 6:30 p.m., and all book signings will follow Box's presentation. Please help us welcome C.J. Box to the Laramie County Library with an evening that promises to be as captivating as Joe Pickett's many adventures.
