The Studio: Frequently Asked Questions

Who can use The Studio?
Individuals 12 years and up may certify to use The Studio. Individuals under 18 years must have a responsible adult to complete the certification process and sign the liability waiver.

How do I become certified?
Go to https://lclsonline.org/the-studio and fill out The Studio Certification form. A staff member will contact you and set a time for certification and signing the liability waiver. You must bring your WYLD library card and a 4GB flash drive to the certification appointment.

Is there a time limit for using The Studio?
As of 11/15/21, there are no set time restrictions. We recommend reserving the space for 2-3 hours at a time, keeping in mind whether you are filming or editing, or both.

How can I reserve The Studio?
You may reserve The Studio space in person at the Computer Center help desk, at the 1st floor Ask Here Desk, or by calling the library at 307-634-3561.

Can a group use The Studio if only one person is certified?
Yes - the certified person is responsible regardless of how many people are in the group; groups will also be limited to 16 people at one time.

Where can I learn how to use Audacity, Adobe Audition, Adobe After Effects or Adobe Premier Pro?
LinkedIn Learning (available through GoWyLD.net, for free with your library card); books in the Computer Classroom. Editing software (Adobe Creative Cloud, Audacity) is available on the Specialized Computers. The library does not provide in-person training in this software.

Do you have iMovie?
Unfortunately no. BUT you are welcome to use The Studio and record with your own iDevice instead of The Studio cart equipment.
