International Day of Peace

September 1-21

Library Hours

The International Day of Peace is observed around the world each year on September 21st. We will be celebrating this global day by participating in the Peace Crane Project. Families and individuals of all ages will be able to write special notes to our sister group and make a crane of peace to send a message from Cheyenne, Wyoming. Stop by the library's Writing Desk on the 2nd floor anytime between September 1st and 21st to write and fold a paper crane. (Children, Teens & Families; 2nd Floor)

Storytime at Wyoming State Museum's Family Day

Saturday, September 4

10:15am and 11:15am

We're taking storytime to the museum! Head on over to the Wyoming State Museum for their Family Day event to participate in one of our early literacy storytimes and other fun activities. This month's Family Day theme is Archeology. (Children & Families; Wyoming State Museum-2301 Central Ave.)

Brown Bag Book Club*

Thursdays: September 9, 23

6-7pm

Brown Bag Book Club will meet twice during the month of September. We will review the first half of the book on the 9th and the second half on the 23rd. Participants can bring a "brown bag" meal and desserts and drinks will be provided. This month we will be reading Because of Winn-Dixie. Make sure you RSVP separately for the second session on September 23rd. This event is great for tweens in grades 4 through 6. (Grades 4-6; Sage Room)

Book description: Opal goes into a Winn-Dixie supermarket and comes out with a dog. Opal learns to let go and that friendship—and forgiveness—can sneak up on you like a sudden summer storm.

Young Readers Book Party

Sunday, September 12

1:15-2pm

You're invited to a party! A book party! Join us for a celebration of reading with young readers that's a little bit early literacy class, and a little bit more! We will read and talk about books, sing, play, and learn! This month's theme is Pirates. (Grades Pre-K – 2; Early Literacy Center)

Graphic Novel Club*

Tuesdays: September 14, 28

6-7pm

In Graphic Novel Club, we will meet twice during the month of September. We will review the first half of the graphic novel on September 14th and the second half on September 28th. Participants can pick up their graphic novel to check out on the 2nd floor of the library or via the library's curbside pick-up service. Our graphic novel for the month is New Kid by Jerry Craft. Books will be available for pick up beginning August 31st. Make sure your RSVP separately for the second session on September 28th. This event is great for teens in grades 6 through 8. (Grades 6-8; Sage Room)

Book Description: Seventh grader Jordan Banks' parents enroll him in a prestigious private school where Jordan is one of the few kids of color. Can Jordan learn to navigate his new school culture while keeping his neighborhood friends and staying true to himself?

Look UP! Family NASA Night

Thursday, September 16

7-8:30pm

On October 31st, NASA is planning the launch of the James Webb space telescope. Come learn more about the telescope and what makes it so amazing. We will do some fun interactive space projects and you'll even have the chance to view Neptune while it's the closest to our planet that it will be all year! You can drop in any time throughout the event or stay for the whole time. (Children, Teens, & Families; Willow Room & Performance Park-Laramie County Library)

Banned Books Week

September 27-October 3
