Special Events & Exhibits

Following the Manito Trail

October 23–November 10

Library Hours

Manito families and their culture have had a profound impact on the Rocky Mountain West. Originating in New Mexico, Manito peoples moved throughout the region seeking work. Following the Manito Trail focuses on their migration into Wyoming and the many ways they influenced the life and culture of the state. Come learn more about Manitos and the surprising ways they have shaped our part of the world. This travelling exhibition is on loan from the University of Wyoming's American Heritage Center.
(All Ages; 1st & 2nd Floor)

From DNA to Beer: Harnessing Nature in Medicine and Industry

November 6–December 16

Library Hours

Microbes are all around us, and they are making our life better! Yeasts, molds, and bacteria have shaped the course of human history and are at the root of many scientific breakthroughs. Learn more by checking out this fascinating banner exhibit. The National Library of Medicine produced this exhibition and its companion website.
(All Ages; 3rd Floor)

ArtFest

November 14–December 17

Library Hours

Enjoy painting, photography, sculpture, and more by artists age 60+ at the 24th Annual ArtFest! Art will be for sale, so if you see a piece you like, call 307-635-2435 to arrange a purchase. Presented by Laramie County Senior Services.
(All Ages; 1st Floor)

National Novel Writing Month

NaNoWriMo: Come Write In!

November 1-30

Library Hours

(All Ages; 3rd Floor)

Grab your laptop, your notebook, or your typewriter and come write in at the library!

The Cheyenne and Pine Bluffs branches of LCLS are registered Come Write In spaces for National Novel Writing Month this year, and we can't wait to host you. Check in at the Third Floor Ask Here desk in Cheyenne or the public desk in Pine Bluffs every time you come in to write, and you will be entered to win some sweet literary and caffeinated prizes!

A limited number of NaNoWriMo 2023 stickers will be available, so come reach your DORG (day one ridiculous goal) with us on November 1st!

Alfreda Beartrack Algeo

Friday, November 3

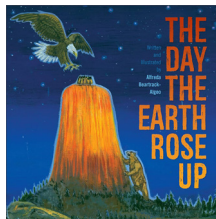

4:15-5:30pm

Join us for a beautiful and fun storytime with author Alfreda Beartrack Algeo, an enrolled member of the Lower Brule Lakota Nation in South Dakota. Alfreda will be reading her book The Day the Earth Rose Up, which was chosen by the Wyoming Humanities to represent our state at the National Book Festival. Stay after the storytime to have your copy of the book signed! Copies will be available for purchase during the event.

(Children & Families; Cottonwood Room)

Quick book description:

When seven Lakota sisters venture deep into the forest to gather chokecherries, they are surprised and chased by a giant bear. As they huddle together on a rock ledge and pray for help, the earth rises up, taking them out of reach of the bear. A great eagle rescues the Seven Sisters by taking them to the Star Nation, where they become the Pleiades star formation we see in the night sky.

Pocket Vinyl in Concert

Día de los Muertos

Saturday, November 4
10am–2pm

Día de los Muertos is not Halloween! Día de los Muertos is a sacred holiday traditionally celebrated on November 1 & 2 across Latin America and beyond. Join us for joyful and colorful opportunities to celebrate throughout the community!

At the library, we will have special storytimes at 10:15am, 11am and 1:15pm as well as a tissue paper flower craft. While you're here, check out ofrendas from community members, the Following the Manito Trail exhibit, and our Día de los Muertos-themed StoryWalk®.

This is a community event and free trolleys will be running from 10am–3pm. Check out the Día de los Muertos events at the Wyoming State Museum (10am - 2pm), Cheyenne Depot Farmers Market (9am - 1pm), and Cheyenne Botanic Gardens (10am - 5pm). Learn more at: www.facebook.com/DiaDeLosMuertosCelebrations

Celebre a los seres queridos fallecidos y aprenda sobre la tradición, arte popular e historia del Día de los Muertos. El Día de los Muertos es un festivo religioso de dos días originando en México y celebrado tradicionalmente en varios países de Latinoamérica y en otros más. Este festivo ofrece una perspectiva única y colorida que transforma una triste realidad en algo bello.

En la biblioteca, presentaremos algunos cuentos a las 10:15am, 11am, y 1:15pm. También, haremos flores de papel crepe. Descubre las ofrendas hechos por miembros de la comunidad, la exhibición Following the Manito Trail, y nuestro StoryWalk® título del mes: El Día de los Muertos por Bob Barner.

En asociación con un comité de miembros de la comunidad, Wyoming State Museum, Cheyenne Botanic Gardens y Cheyenne Depot Museum se han organizado estas celebraciones comunitarias para compartir el significado de esta festividad y brindar espacios acogedores para que la gente celebre su cultura. Todos los residentes locales, hispanos o no, están invitados a disfrutar de esta celebración comunitaria y a conocer culturas y tradiciones que puedan ser nuevas para ellos. Write a Letter to a Veteran

November 1-4

10am-12pm

Drop by the library to write a letter or draw a picture for a veteran. We will provide the supplies while you provide the creativity! If you would like to write a letter from home, please drop it off at the library by 12pm on November 4 so it can be mailed in time for Veterans Day. Letters should be unsealed and signed only with first names; no last names, please.

Alfreda Beartrack Algeo

Friday, November 3

1:30-2:30pm

Join us for a beautiful and fun storytime with author Alfreda Beartrack Algeo, an enrolled member of the Lower Brule Lakota Nation in South Dakota. Alfreda will be reading her book The Day the Earth Rose Up, which was chosen by the Wyoming Humanities to represent our state at the National Book Festival. Stay after the storytime to have your copy of the book signed! Copies will be available for purchase during the event.
(Children & Families)

Quick book description: When seven Lakota sisters venture deep into the forest to gather chokecherries, they are surprised and chased by a giant bear. As they huddle together on a rock ledge and pray for help, the earth rises up, taking them out of reach of the bear. A great eagle rescues the Seven Sisters by taking them to the Star Nation, where they become the Pleiades star formation we see in the night sky.

Silent Library Amazing Race

Tuesday, November 14

4-6pm

Have a blast with an interactive event inspired by the popular television show! Follow a series of clues around the library to complete the race, but here's the twist: absolute silence is required throughout the entire event. Participants will navigate various sections of the library to solve challenges and put their knowledge and library familiarity to the test!

Lunch Bunch Book Club

Saturday, November 18

12-1pm

Join us for an exciting discussion of The Midnight Library by Matt Haig. "Between life and death there is a library, and within that library, the shelves go on forever. Every book provides a chance to try another life you could have lived." Please bring a dish to share for the potluck lunch. For more information, please call the Pine Bluffs Branch Library at 307-245-3646 or visit with staff.
